Who we are

We are the European Agency for Special Needs and Inclusive Education, or EASNIE.

We want everyone in Europe to be included in education and learning.

Being included in education means:

- ✓ Learning together with friends
- ✓ Learning near to home
- ✓ Being part of society.

Being included in education should happen throughout their life.

Our vision

Our vision is for education to include learners of any age.

We want all learners to:

- ✓ Have a high-quality education
- ✓ Have good opportunities in the community where they live
- ✓ Learn in the same place as their friends.

We share this vision with over 30 of our member countries in Europe.

Making EASNIE accessible

Being accessible means including as many people in our work as we can.

We want the way we work and our team to include as many people as possible.

We have written a new policy about this. The policy says what we are doing to make our:

- ✓ Information accessible
- ✓ Website accessible
- ✓ Events accessible.

You can read our full accessibility policy here.

Our work

We work with leaders in education in over 30 countries, so they can:

- ✓ Help learners to achieve more in their life
- ✓ Give learners more opportunities to take part in society.

We are the only European organisation supported by our member countries to do this work.

Here is the full list of countries we work with.

When you get to this page, you can click on the name of each country for more information.

We want every member country to work with us so that education and learning are good and fair for everyone.

We work with governments and international organisations around the world too.

You can click on the link above for more information.

How we work with our member countries

---

We know some of our member countries like to work in different ways.

We advise and guide each country how to:

- ✓ Make better plans for education
- ✓ Have high quality education systems so that every learner feels included
- ✓ Share knowledge and experience with other countries
- ✓ Look at their education policies to check they are working well.

We give advice and guidance to all our member countries, so they can include more learners in education.

We do this by:

- ✓ Supporting leaders to write good and fair education policies
- ✓ Running activities so countries can learn from each other
- ✓ Sharing research so that each country can make education better for everyone.
- ✓ Making guidelines so countries can learn how to change the way education and training happens

- ✓ Writing reports and running events that everyone can share and learn from
  - ✓ Putting clear information on our website about how to include more learners.
